Glass Open Book

UAS Messtechnik GmbH

Description:

Control systems for glass plants achieve highest requirements on precision, reproducibility and a maximum of reliability in 24/7 operation. Therefore the combination of traditionally process knowledge and most modern technology is the key to ensure a very high comfort level and the maximum on availability for our customers.

Based on our more than 30 years history as a supplier of automation and control solutions, UAS has the know-how to realize the branch specific requirements.The most significant points in our plants are clear structures, a maximum of safety and a very easy way to control even complex and difficult process parameters.

As the most experienced partner for glass plants UAS realized more than 80 of successful cooperation projects in the fields of float, container, TFT/LCD and fibreglass. Our highly skilled employees are focused especially on a PCS7 conform way of programming.

Location: Germany

Sectors: Glass container, Flat / Float glass, Special glass

Activities: Equipment / Machinery supplier

Follow the company

Contact information

Website: uas.de